

HEALTH AND WELLBEING IN DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

Engaging Health Care Professionals

October 27-28, 2015

University of Toronto Conference Centre, 89 Chestnut Street

Come to Learn More About...

Predictors, Assessment and Intervention

Workshops

- Health promotion interventions: translating research to action
- Perceptions and attitudes of family members and caregivers in implementing Comprehensive Health Assessments for Adults with Intellectual Disability (ID) in Manitoba
- Risk Assessment in People with Developmental Disabilities
- Systematic Desensitization to Venipuncture with Combined Visual Supports and Relaxation Strategies for an Adult with Developmental Disability
- Using stations, embedding and fundamental movement patterns to design progressions for 'even more basic' skills with ADL transfer
- Why Johnny Can't Jump... The musculoskeletal signs of developmental delay, detraining and the hypokinetic lifestyle...Case studies, protocols and outcome measurers

Posters

- Epidemiology of diabetes of Ontarians with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities
- Is Measuring Best? Evaluating Report Derived Body Mass Index in Special Olympics Participants
- Nintendo Wii versus resistance training to improve upper limb function in children ages 7 to 12 with spastic hemiplegic cerebral palsy: a home study
- Predictors of Activity Participation for Children and Adolescents with Severe Developmental Disabilities
- Predictors of Psychiatric and Non-Psychiatric Hospital Admissions among Young Adults with Developmental Disabilities in Ontario
- Treatment of late-detected phenylketonuria

For more information, contact:

Info-PSR1567@cpdtoronto.ca

www.healthandwellbeingindd.ca/

Tel: 416-978-2719/Toll free: 1-888-512-8173

